Dear Rick:

Let me express our gratitude for your tremendous contribution as speaker during the recent 11th Annual Ohio Energy Management & Restructuring Conference held here in Columbus in late February. The conference was a tremendous success with excellent attendance and absolutely outstanding scores from the attendees on their conference evaluations. In fact, this year's conference was the highest-rated conference in the eleven year history of this program, setting scoring records in overall rating, written materials and average speaker & session ratings categories. Here are a few of the many comments:

- Thanks for the best energy seminar yet!
- ...overall the workshops and speakers were at a higher level of quality than in the past.
- Overall conference excellent. Excellent presentations and good discussions especially for neophytes.
- This was my first MEC conference. I found it to be very educational and useful. The format was great & the program featured speakers with timely & updated information.
- Very good value for the money!
- All around excellent! Good speakers, topics, food & facility.
- Very worthwhile conference.

Thank you for your outstanding materials and presentation during the workshop on Energy Management Success. The session received excellent scores on the attendee evaluations. Many, many thanks for making this annual conference a tremendous success.

Sincerely,
